American Rental Association

Recruitment Brochures and Posters — FREE to ARA Members —

These brochures offer specific information on the diversity of careers available in the rental industry. Distribute these during employee interviews, at job fairs, high schools, technical schools and/or colleges in your area.

When the need arises to recruit employees, display a poster in your business, the community center, community college or any other local outlet where people congregate. There's even a space for you to provide information about your business.

Additional free copies of these brochures and poster can be obtained by contacting ARA.

Fax your order to ARA at 309-764-1533
or call ARA Member Services at 800-334-2177.
